2017 Snow Camp Fourth of July Celebration and Parade!

Snow Camp, North Carolina - May 19, 2017

The Sylvan Ruritan and Snow Camp community will hold a Fourth of July celebration and parade again this year. All are invited to come and participate. In its 16th year sponsored by the Sylvan Ruritan of Snow Camp, the Celebration will begin with a parade at 10 am on Tuesday, the Fourth of July, 2017 and follow with live bluegrass music, food, ice cream, and fun at the Sylvan Elementary Ball Field next to Sylvan School. For the kids and the kids at heart, we will have a large inflatable water slide, a water balloon catapult, and old-fashioned games including sack races, wheelbarrow races, egg races and a watermelon eating contest,

Those who wish to be in the parade should meet at Sylvan Elementary School no later than 9:30 am on Tuesday, July 4th. Participating groups include the Pleasant Hill Saddle Club, Snow Camp Volunteer Fire Department, area churches, tractors, classic cars, and others. Children and other groups are welcome to participate in the parade. The parade will follow its traditional route, around Sylvan School & Drama Roads before returning to the school. Line up along the roadside for the best views!

Immediately following the parade, the celebration will continue at the ball field, with concessions including hot dogs, french fries, candy, drinks, ice cream and baked goods. Local churches, meetings, vendors and residents are invited to bring baked goods and arts & crafts and will need to register by July 3, 2017. There will be plenty of space for attendees to bring blankets and lawn chairs to use while listening to the live bluegrass music.

For information and registration see snowcamp.org, contact parade@snowcamp.org or call Mike & Penny Arnold at (336)380-0020.
